CONSECRATION

of the Church and Churchyard of St.

Andrew, Hudson Settlement.

This interesting mission, which comprises a large tract of the country on the North Branch of the Saskatchewan, was first established about four years since, the funds being provided out of the grant given by the Vancouver Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. The first workers were members of the staff of Emmanuel College. The service was held at first in private houses. As soon as the congregation was gathered in, either, steps were taken for building a church, the Rev. J. F. Pritchard, a student of Emmanuel College, was ordained deacon and placed in charge of the mission, where his ministrations and work have been much appreciated. The church has now been completed, and the churchyard enclosed. The church is a good, substantial log building, about forty feet in length, including the chancel.
It was built for the most part by the settlers themselves, assisted by a grant of $200 from the Bishop. The church cost $400, and the settlers in this parish have shown most exemplary energy in church matters. The congregation is composed entirely of farmers and their families, languished by the difficulties attending the pioneer settler of the North West.

The Bishop and party drove out to the South Branch on Friday. As his Lordship drew near the church the bell rang out a merry welcome. A site for a camp was selected, the tents pitched, and all retired to enjoy a sound sleep after the long drive from Prince Albert.

At ten o'clock on Saturday Mrs. Mc-Lean at the request of Mr. Pritchard, presented the prizes to the successful competitors in the day school. The teacher, Mr. Mackay, has been most successful in his work in the school. At eleven o'clock his Lordship, attended by his chaplains, Rev. Canon Cooper, F. R.
G. S., and the Rev. Canon Flett, B.D., proceeded to the church. He was met at the door by the Rev. J. F. Pritchard and the two churchwardens, Messrs. Charles G. Bird and John Taylor, who presented the following petition—

To the Right Rev. Father in God, John, by Divine permission, Lord Bishop of Saskatchewan.

The petition of John Francis Pritchard, Deacon Missionary in charge of the parish of St. Andrew the Apostle, South Branch, Saskatchewan, and Charles George Bird, and John Taylor, churchwardens of the said parish, humbly sheweth—

That land for a church site and churchyard for the use of the inhabitants of the parish of St. Andrew the Apostle, South Saskatchewan, has been granted, and duly conveyed to the Lord

Bishop of Saskatchewan and his successors for ever.

That upon the site thus duly conveyed a church has been built, which said church is free from debt, and is provided with all things necessary for the due celebration of public worship, according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England.

That the churchyard has been fenced in, and that there is no debt remaining upon the said work.

Your petitioners therefore humbly pray your Lordship to proceed with the consecration of the church and churchyard of the said parish of St. Andrew the Apostle, South Saskatchewan.

The Bishop then proceeded to consecrate the church, according to the form found in the Prayer Book of the Church of Ireland, there being no such form in the Prayer Book of the Church of England. At the close of the consecration service, a mandate was read by one of the chaplains and signed by his Lordship, declaring "that the building be set apart from henceforth for all unalienated, ordinary and common uses, and dedicated entirely to the uses of Divine service, according to the ritual of the Church of England; for reading therein God's Holy Word, for preaching the same for celebrating the Holy Sacraments, for offering for blessing God's faithful people in His Holy Name, for celebrating the Holy Ordinances of Matrimony and Confirmation, and all other Holy Ordinances which may be solemnized therein." The usual Morning Prayers of the Church of England were said by the Rev. Canon Flett.

The Rev. Canon Cooper gave an interesting address on public worship.
He was listened to by a large congregation with the greatest attention.

A procession was then formed to consecrate the churchyard, which was by the Bishop set apart from all unalienated, ordinary and common uses, and dedicated entirely to Almighty God as a place where the order for the Burial of the Dead, as set forth in the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England, may be solemnized, and where the bodies of God's faithful people may rest in peace until the period which he has assigned for their resurrection from the Dead.

Several of the most prominent citizens of Prince Albert were present to witness the ceremony, among whom were the Hon. L. Clarke, Col. and Mrs. Spradden, Miss Green, Messrs. T. McKay, G.
Duck, W. A. McLean, J. O. Davis, and Senator Carvell. At the close of the service a collection was taken up for the Venerable Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. The Hon. L. Clarke, with his usual liberality, presented St. Andrew's Church with lumber for ceiling and completing the chancel.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Visit of the Rev. W. H. Cooper.

In accordance with an announcement made by the Bishop, the Ordinaries on Sunday last, the 21st, at St. Mary's and St.
Catherine's, were in aid of the funds of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, and the opportunity was taken of the visit of the Rev. W. H. Cooper, who is at present engaged in an extensive mission tour of the venerable Society, to have special sermons preached by him, giving some account of the Society's work.
The morning service at St. Mary's was well attended. The prayers were said by the Rev. Canon Flett, the Bishop taking the usual Consecration office. After the Nicene Creed, his Lordship advanced to the front of the chancel and gave a short address, the substance of which was as follows—

The Bishop stated that, in accordance with the advice of the Council of the Church, he had formed a Bishop's Council, under the style and title of "The Dean and Canons of the Diocese of Saskatchewan," until such time as he should procure the erection of a suitable Cathedral Church, when they would be known as the Dean and Canons of the Cathedral, that the true function of the Dean and Canons was to act as an advisory council to the Bishop, and though this function had been largely overlooked in the Mother Church in modern times, there were not wanting signs of a desire to return to the ancient practice in England. In such a vast diocese as Saskatchewan, with its rapidly increasing mission work, it was important that the Bishop should have the advantage of the advice of such a council, and the Rev. Mr. Cooper's large and varied experience in other branches of the Colonial Church, and his intimate acquaintance with the work of the great missionary society that he represented, eminently qualified him to be a member of the Council.

The Rev. Canon Flett then read the appointment of the Rev. W. H. Cooper to the position of Hon. Canon of the Diocese of Saskatchewan, which was then handed by his Lordship to the Rev. Mr.
Cooper, who, after a hymn had been sung, preached from the text, Genesis 37, 35, "God, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and with well with the flocks, and bring me word again." The preacher gave short account of the origin of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, and showed that for 180 years it had steadily kept in view the principle laid down by its founders which in the first instance was "the care and instruction of our own people settled in the colonies." How well and successfully this work had been carried out the present position of the Church in the different parts of the world was a witness. In New Zealand the first diocese was founded only forty years ago, and now at that distant part of the world, there were seven bishops, and last year, the Society was able to withdraw all aid to the New Zealand Church, as it had become wholly self supporting. He looked forward to the day when this would be also the case with the dioceses in Canada; he had been sent out by the Church at home to see how they fared, and if it was well with them, and then he was to return and tell what he had seen; he was sure the members of the Church at home would feel as thankful as he himself felt at the progress the Church here was making under the wise and energetic guidance of their good Bishop, and he hoped that the fact of his visit would make the members of their diocese and much loved Church feel, that there was great sympathy felt for them in England, and that the Church of their father did not forget them.

The officiating amounted to $20.

The afternoon service at St. Catherine's was held at 3 p.m., the prayers were read by the Rural Dean, the Rev. E.
Matheson. The Church was crowded to the doors. That mission was worked by funds provided by the S. P. G., and the results were most gratifying. His Lordship gave a short address, after which the Rev. W. H. Cooper preached to a most attentive congregation.

The offertory was $9.

In the evening, at St. Mary's, the sermon was preached by Mr. Cooper, who took for his text Jer. 5, 1, "Stand ye in the old ways, and are and was for the old path, where is the good way, and walk therein." He gave a brief sketch of the history of the English Church, and pointed out that as it had been founded in England before the close of the first century, probably by St. Paul, or one of his converts, it was certainly an old Church, that it was also good, and that fact from the fact that its doctrine were pure, that its services were in a great measure taken from Holy Scripture, three fifths of the Morning and Evening Services being in the very words of the Bible. It was also good because its services and prayers applied to the heart in a very successful way, and the Book of Common Prayer bound together the children of the Church in a bond of spiritual communion though they might be separated from each other by their hundreds of miles, the same prayers, the same praises, the same worship were uttered by the loved ones at home in England and also by those scattered abroad in the most distant parts of the world.
The sermon was concluded with an appeal to those present not to be satisfied with being outwardly members of the old, the good and the Scriptural Church of England, but to seek in nothing short of real personal faith a personal salvation, and a life of practical holiness, and that their faith would be shown forth in their deeds. The offertory amounted to $4.40, making up a sum of $40.50 collected during the day, which has been forwarded to the secretary.

THE PRINCE ALBERT TIMES

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1893

INCORPORATION.

We are pleased to learn that there is likely to be some attempt made to bring this question more directly before the people. The inhabitants of Edmonton and other places are bestirring themselves in the matter, and no more favorable time than the present could be selected to introduce the subject, but we would call the attention of those interested to the fact that as the North West Council will meet in August there is no time for delay, unless the measure is to be allowed to lie over for another year or, if Lieut. Governor Dewdney remains at the helm, possibly two years.

There is some probability that a public meeting will be called to take the matter into consideration, at which a committee will likely be appointed to draft a scheme for the approval of the people, which if satisfactory will be made the basis of a petition to the North West Council.

Public matters are just now at an utter stand still. Subscriptions for general improvements have been the order of the day so long that our citizens have become well-nigh disgusted with the system. A few of the more generously minded citizens still contribute freely to all measures intended for the public weal, but the total burden now rests on their shoulders, as the mass of the people contribute little or nothing. Indeed it is almost impossible to secure a sufficient attendance at any public meeting to make it in any sense representative in its character. We trust that the generous support which the measure seems to receive will not in any case be found to proceed from interested motives. The town is now sufficiently advanced to enable us to select definitely the site of the future Prince Albert, and property owners will be blind to their own interests if instead of uniting for the common welfare they divide into factions and begin a pusillanimous struggle with each other. With a common aim before them, the people have now an opportunity to locate the town permanently on its present site, while an increased population with more conflicting interests will render this very difficult, if not quite impossible.

HOMESTEAD LANDS.

The letter in our correspondence column in reference to this question is but a repetition of the old story which we have told over and over again. A would-be settler, knowing that there is a large tract of valuable land with only comparatively small settlement in the locality, and having read Government and other emigration pamphlets setting forth these unoccupied lands, are intended as homes for the actual settler, and that the intending homesteader has only to make the necessary application in order to secure his claim, naturally infers that he will have no difficulty in locating, visits the land office to find that there is no land open for homestead entry in the locality; goes out in the country and learns that only about one-eighth of the land is really occupied, while the remainder is in the hands of the Government and other speculators. His next step is to secure the assistance of the land guide, who takes him twenty miles away to land that is not yet in the market, and so entirely inaccessible that they have to secure the assistance of a native guide in order to find it. Again we say that it is time that this farce which the Government entitled a land law was ended. The advertising of land which is not in the market, and which it is not intended will be to intending settlers, is as huge a swindle as any that has disgraced the pages of our history. We only ask for fair play and elbow room for our farmers. More than this they do not want. With fair opportunities, the strong, rugged men who constitute the body of the pioneers are willing to be the architects of their own fortune. And if the opportunity had been given them when it should have been, the country districts would have had more the appearance of an old settled country than of an uninhabited wild, and we would have had in ourselves all the elements necessary to make Prince Albert a great commercial centre.

In reference to this question the Fort McLeod Gazette well says that "there is a cry going up for justice from the eastern boundary of Manitoba to the base of the Rocky Mountains, and from the boundary line to Canada's northern limit." It may be only a low wailing cry, but it is like the sigh of the sea, reaching from shore to shore. What the Government can mean we do not understand, but unless they are blinded to their own interests they will throw the land open for settlement to actual settlers as soon as possible. Our correspondent has in the meantime accepted a situation in lieu of the more lucrative one which he had vacated in order to commence farming, and will await the arrival of Lindsay Russell, who may perhaps be able to assist him in some way.

THE "BYSTANDER"

The Bystander for July contains an article on the fiscal policy of Canada. Below we give an extract which refers directly to the North West. Those who differ from the opinions of the writer as well as those who agree with them will read with interest what such a powerful thinker and writer as Goldwin Smith has to say on this vital question.

"The sharpest note of warning has come from the North West. Was it not clear that when that country was peopled and began to feel its strength, it would disarrange any programme framed on the assumption of its being a distant belonging to Eastern Canada, with which the owner was always to be at liberty to deal as she pleased? The programme was that while Canada bore the expense of a railway, large sections of which were political works and commercially unproductive, she should indemnify herself by keeping the North West as a privy market. So far, the people of the North West have submitted with patience; they have consented to pay tribute to Eastern Canada on their fuel, meat and directly needed as it was, on lumber, not less indispensable, and on the canned meats, which also were a necessary of life. But the proposal to raise the duty on agricultural implements, not for revenue, but for the purpose of increasing the gains of the Canadian manufacturer strikes, too openly and directly, at the life of a grain-producing community. From the organs of his own party the Finance Minister receives a protest which he does not disregard. Under cover of postponement, he gives way, raising the insurgents at the same time much in the language in which Granville and Townsend rated the Colonists when they protested against the Stamp Tax. Ungrateful Manitobans, plucked by our ears, nourished by our indulgence to strength and audacity, will you grudge us to contribute your mite to relieve us from the heavy burden under which we lie? The Manitobans of both political parties reply, as the Colonists replied, and with equal justice."

DEATH OF SIR ALBERT J. SMITH

Within the past four years the ranks of the Liberal leaders have been greatly thinned by the hand of death. On the 26th of June another loss was sustained by the death of Sir Albert J. Smith, who has been a prominent figure in the public life of New Brunswick for the last thirty years. The deceased statesman was born in Westmoreland County, N.B. some sixty-five years ago. He was called to the Bar of his native Province in 1847 and was a member of the executive council of New Brunswick from 1856 to 1863, and again in 1866. Sir Albert belonged to the old Liberal party of New Brunswick and when the scheme of Confederation was first mooted he opposed it vigorously. Elected to the House of Commons in 1867 he did not ally himself with either party for several years and was offered a seat in Sir John's government. The revelations in connection with the Pacific Railway scandal, however, caused him to unite with the Reformers. When the McKenzie Government was formed in 1873, Mr. Smith became Minister of Marines and Fisheries. He represented the Government at the Halifax Fisheries commission in 1877, where an award of $5,500,000 was declared in favor of Canada. For his services in connection with that Commission he was knighted. At the last general election Sir Albert was defeated for the first time. Since that time his health has been very indifferent, and from time to time alarming reports as to his condition have been current. The deceased was one of the wealthiest men in the Dominion.

THE POST OFFICE.

In both Manitoba and the North West Territories the unexpected rush of immigrants into almost unoccupied localities has been the cause of towns springing into existence as if by magic, and as the first site of a store or Post office is not necessarily the location of the future town, it has been a matter of considerable difficulty for the Government to select the site for the Post office, and in some cases other public buildings. The location of the Post office here was a matter of very little moment so long as we had only one mail in three weeks, but a weekly pilgrimage on the part of our business men of from one-half to two miles is causing them to look upon the matter in quite a different light. The Government cannot be aware that the Post office is as inconveniently situated as it really is, and we imagine that if the matter was once laid before them some more convenient location would at once be selected.

QUEEN VICTORIA CENSURED.

Presbyterians the world over are noted for their fearless denunciation of what they consider to be wrong. The Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland have just published a report on religion and morals, in which Queen Victoria is censured for permitting the desecration of the Sabbath through the special messenger train which runs daily once each way between Aberdeen and Bellerby in connection with the fast trains from London, when the court is at Balmoral.

COMMUNICATION

HOMESTEAD TROUBLES

To the Editor of The Times.

SIR, It may interest homestead settlers in Prince Albert to hear my experience in trying to homestead in this vicinity. Arriving here by steamer May 29th, the 12th inst. with my family, and settling there in a house, I went some thirty to the land office, and on my way found that there was no even section any where near here mentioned. Next morning I walked over to the South Branch to see a friend who had written to me some time before that there were several good claims not taken near here. On arriving, he seemed quite astonished to hear that they had been already entered, though no one resided on them. Both going over and returning I called in at what settlers' homes I could find, and on telling them of my intention to place my family on land at once, they seemed quite pleased and anxious to have me for neighbors and told me of such and such even sections unoccupied, and others with a little breaking done, but no one resident. Before going to the land office again, I met with several parties who offered to sell me their improvements and give up their homestead and pre-emption for the value of them, say ten acres of land broken $30, and so on. I did not accept their offers, and went to the land office to get information on the subject and was told by the agent that it was quite illegal, and that if I paid them anything it would be lost, as the land reverts to the Government, who charge $2.50 an acre for it, the value of the improvements, and also I believe homestead duties have to be performed in addition (though of course I am not sure). What an extraordinary state of things, that by a man entering for a claim who may not have the means or the intention of settling on it, such lands should revert to the Government and the actual settler be deprived of his just rights. I may say that I was fully prepared in every way to take immediate possession of my land, having purchased tools, tools, animals and all the electric necessary for the purpose. The finding out that all land close here was taken up, I decided on looking for some further away, and went some twenty seven miles east to the Birch Hills, which seems a good country, but rather inaccessible at present on account of the bad condition of the roads, which I should say are very seldom travelled over, there being so few real settlers residing on their claims. In fact, by the roads I went, between here and the South Branch four houses were all I could see, that is, of course, excluding river claims—a distance of some fifteen miles. Hoping these few remarks will interest the public and inducing s. dex, to the latter I would say, now ever, that it would be better for them to make enquiries in advance of their coming as to whether any land was open for them or not.

Yours truly,

RICHARD BEATTY,
Prince Albert, July 20, 1911.

INCORPORATION.

To the Editor of The Times.

SIR, I would kindly wish for space in your paper to point out to the people of our town their difficulties in not taking some steps to have the place incorporated. Now we have elected a member, and from what I can learn the council will meet sometime next month. Would it not be advisable to make some steps so that our members can go well armed with a petition to the council from us wishing for incorporation. If we had an incorporated town here, would not we be able to make better arrangements for our own advancement, and the future state of our town? Will we allow ourselves to be outstripped by Edmonton, who have already taken steps to be incorporated and ours, which is an older and more important settlement, seems to have allowed its people to fall into that terrible state of apathy, which if they do not know off quickly, will find themselves the place they live in drifts in the centre of nothing. What I would advise is that a meeting be held to consider the matter of incorporation, and from that meeting a committee should be appointed who would define the boundaries of the proposed town, under the consideration of the people themselves and finally that a petition signed by all who wish for the future welfare of our place, to the North West Council asking for incorporation, and the same name with steps are taken the better for us all.

NORTH WEST COUNCIL.

Enlarged powers have been conferred on the North West Council, empowering it to enact ordinances in relation to the following subjects:—The establishment and tenure of territorial offices, and the appointment and payment of territorial officers; the establishment, maintenance, and management of prisons in and for the N. W. Territories; municipal institutions in the Territories, subject to any legislation by the Parliament of Canada heretofore or hereafter to be enacted; the issue of shop, auctioneer, and other licenses, except licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors, in order to the raising of a revenue for territorial or municipal purposes; the administration of marriage in the Territories, the administration of justice, including the constitution, organization, and maintenance of territorial courts of civil jurisdiction; the imposition of punishment by fine, penalty, or imprisonment; for enforcing any territorial ordinances; property and civil rights in the Territories, subject to any legislation by the Parliament of Canada on these subjects; generally all matters of a merely local or private nature in the Territories.

TOUCHWOOD HILLS.

The crops in this district are looking splendid, and the settlers and Indians are well satisfied. They have a large acreage under crop and expect an abundant yield. Mr. Robt. Wishart is bringing in a ten horse power thrasher. A great mill is expected this fall.

MINING.

Now is the time to secure your town lots, as the survey has been completed. Col. Sprad and Mr. Henderson of Prince Albert paid us a visit the other day. They both expressed themselves as well pleased with this part of the country.

Mr. Jas. Finlayson has returned from Qu'Appelle bringing with him his bride. Mr. John Patterson has become the happy father of a little girl. Jack feels very proud over the event.

The crops in this locality are looking well. There has been some 400 acre of new breaking done this season.

Fifteen days ago Sister Clemens, of the Catholic Order of Divine Providence, mysteriously disappeared from New Braunfels, Texas, where the society has an educational institute. Recently her skeleton was found in the mountains eight miles from town.

A number of Indians, who are engaged quarrying on the Credit Valley Railway, at Morrisstown, indulged in a free fight. One man had his arm broken in two places, another was severely beaten on the head, and a third received internal injuries which may result in his death.

The master of the Canadian steamer Russia, telegraphed to the authorities at Washington as to whether he could be allowed to take passengers from one American port to another. Mr. French, Secretary of the Treasury, telegraphed in reply that there was no law to prohibit a foreign vessel from carrying passengers from one American port to another.

Rev. Mr. Ritchie, rector of the Church of the Ascension, Chicago, announced that at the conclusion of the service a requiem mass would be said for the soul of Captain Daniel Fountain, who was drowned in Lake Michigan during the latter part of May. Half the congregation left the church. Meanwhile, at the request of Fountain's widow, the mass was postponed for a few days.

On the recommendation of the Honorable the Acting Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs, and under the provisions of the first section of the Act passed in the session of the Parliament of Canada held in the fourth year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter second, and intitled "An Act to amend the Indian Act, 1869."

The Excellency, by and with the consent of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada, has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following regulations be, and the same are hereby made and adopted:

"No band, or irregular band of Indians, and no Indian of any band or irregular band in the North West Territories, may, without the consent in writing of the Indian Agent for the locality, sell, barter, exchange, or give to any person, or receive from any person, any grain or stock, or any other produce grown on any reserve in the North West Territories, or on any part of such reserve, and any such sale, barter, exchange, or gift shall be absolutely null and void, unless the same shall be in accordance with the provisions and regulations hereby prescribed; and any such grain or stock, or other produce unlawfully in the possession of any person or persons shall be liable to be seized and taken possession of by any person acting under the authority, either general or special, of the Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs; and to be dealt with as the Superintendent-General, or any officer or person thereto by him authorized, may direct."

J. G. COYNE.
By Forty-four Victoria, Chapter second, being "An Act to amend the Indian Act, sections two and three, it is provided that—

2. Any person who buys or otherwise acquires from any such Indian, or band or irregular band of Indians, contrary to any provision or regulations made by the first section of the Indian Act, is guilty of an offence, and is punishable, upon summary conviction, by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or by a place of confinement other than a penitentiary, or by both the fine and imprisonment, or by both the fine, or stock or other produce, as aforesaid, be unlawfully in the possession of any person, within the intent and meaning of this Act and of any provision or regulations made by the Government in Council under this Act, any person acting under the authority, either general or special, of the Superintendent-General, may think necessary, seize and take possession of any such grain or stock, or other produce, as aforesaid, and be dealt with thereunto as the Superintendent-General, or any officer or person thereto by him authorized, may direct."

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

The Rev. Caleb Parker, the new pastor for the Methodist Church here, with his wife and family have arrived.

Circumstances have received their new engine and boiler by the last boat, which they intend to place in position at once.

Mr. Geo. D. Northgrove arrived back home by boat on Sunday, bringing with him his wife and daughter. We welcome them.

Mr. McConnell, Qu'Appelle, has been awarded the contract for putting up the telegraph poles from Touchwood Hills to Touchwood.

As will be seen by an advertisement in another column, tenders are invited for the getting out of poles for the telegraph extension to this place.

Mr. Thom McKay received by the steamer North West a magnificent steam thrasher. The engine and boiler will be used in connection with his new mill.

Messrs. W. A. McLean and S. C. Elliot, barbers etc., have entered into partnership. The new firm can be found in McLean's building, corner of King and Water streets.

Some party or parties maliciously in closed a few days ago shut a favorite horse belonging to Capt. Young. It was a mean act and should not be allowed to go unpunished.

Arrangements have been made for the purchase of all the material needed for the completion of the Presbyterian Church at the Ridge. The building will be finished at an early date.

Mr. A. McNabb, D. L. S., arrived in town by boat last Sunday. This gentleman is a brother-in-law of Col. Spence, and it is his intention to make Prince Albert his home for the future.

Amongst the passengers who arrived on Sunday we noticed the familiar face of T. N. Campbell, stationer, who had been east on a business trip. Tom is looking splendid after the visit.

A gentleman informs us that he had the pleasure on Saturday of visiting a farm belonging to Mr. Thom McKay, with 280 acres under cultivation. He states the entire crop was looking splendidly.

Messrs. Shannon & McLeod have removed into their new store where they will be pleased to see their customers. Those in want of boots or shoes should call before going elsewhere, as their prices cannot be beat.

Mr. Geo. Forsythe, of Harris, Son & Co., arrived here Sunday. He is expecting by the steamer Marquis a lot of self-binders. The majority of these machines are already sold, so that parties requiring one had better speak in time.

Mr. H. J. Montgomery has removed his real estate office into Messrs. McLean & Elliot's law chambers, where he can now be found. Mr. Montgomery was glad to learn has entirely recovered from his recent illness, and says he never felt in better — than.

The steamer Manitoba went up the river early Monday morning with a full load of freight for different point, and a few passengers, amongst whom are the following: J. B. Connor and son, Mr. Stewart, H. B. Co., Miss Florence Clarke, Miss Green and a few others.

We had a visit from Mr. Brown, gardener at the South Branch, the other day who left us a sample of his production in the shape of new potatoes, onions, green peas, radishes, parsley, sage, navy etc. Any person wanting a supply of these vegetables can be accommodated by sending their orders to Mr. Brown.

The Rev. Mr. Cooper accompanied by A. Albrecht, Esq., left Emmanuel College, where they had been the guests of His Lordship, the Bishop, on Tuesday for a long tour through the Diocese. They intend visiting Battleford, Edmonton, Fort Pitt and Calgary, which latter place they expect to reach the end of August.

We are pleased to notice the arrival of two gentlemen, the Messrs Dunlop, relatives of Capt. Moore, one of whom Dr. J. B. Dunlop, a graduate from the Royal College of Surgeons, England, intends practising his profession in this town. Enquiries for this gentleman's professional services can be made, for the present, at this office.

Sergeant Braden dispatched early Sunday morning constables Hoesen and Fontaine to Buck Lake with a warrant to arrest two half-breeds, who there is good ground to believe picked up and retained the pocket book lost recently by a surveyor in this locality. They are supposed to be en route to either Fort McLeod or Bow River.

Mr. H. Board of Mission, was in town yesterday on business connected with his course. He left for home to-day.

Messrs. Wood & Cass arrived here from Moose Jaw last week, with two tons loaded with a miscellaneous assortment of goods. They intend to sell the whole outfit.

His Lordship, the Bishop of Saskatchewan, and Mrs. McLean went for Winnipeg to summer. The Bishop will attend the Provincial Synod of the Ecclesiastical Province of Rupert's Land, held on the 8th of August. He will then proceed to Calgary, Medicine Hat, Fort McLeod and Edmonton. He will return to Prince Albert in September and then proceed to England for the winter, where he will advocate the cause of the North West before the English public.

The steamer North West, Capt. Shefts, arrived in port Sunday at noon. She left Grand Rapids on the 15th inst. with about a dozen passengers and 212 tons of freight. She met the Marquis the first day out. The following is the list of passengers for Prince Albert: George Wright, A. C. Vaughan, T. N. Campbell, Geo. D. Northgrove, wife and daughter, Mrs. Forsythe and A. McLean; for Edmonton: John Connor and son; for Cumberland: Ed. Belanger, Mrs. A. Kitchin, Rev. Pere Ansel and P. Gravel; for The Pas: Philip Kennedy; for Fort A la Corne: Thos. Head; from Fort A la Corne to Prince Albert: Mrs. J. A. MacDonald and three children.

Rev. W. McWilliam, M.A., L.L.B., Streetville, Ont., has been appointed by the Home Mission Committee, Presbyterian Church, to Prince Albert. He will be released from his congregation by the Presbytery of Toronto on July 26th, so that he will have ample time to reach here before winter sets in. In an interview which the Winnipeg Free Press reporter had with Prof. Rev. McWilliam says he knew Mr. McWilliam as his Latin teacher, twenty years ago, as a good scholar. His going to Prince Albert at the present time, where the educational interests of that region need attention, is most fortunate. The Presbyterian School at Prince Albert has for years ranked as the best in the Territory, and the time seems to have come when a High School Department might with advantage be added to it.
